

APPLICATION FOR ELECTRICIAN'S LICENSE BY RECIPROCITY
 NORTH DAKOTA STATE ELECTRICAL BOARD (NDSEB)
 SFN 61913 (12-2020)

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

All items must be completed, including signature and date. For submittal instructions, see the "Submit Completed Application" section on Page 3 of this application.

RECIPROCITY REQUIREMENTS

- Passed written examination from the state you are reciprocating from; and
- Possess a valid license that is current, active and in good standing; and
- Held license continuously during the one (1) year prior to requesting reciprocity; and
- List work experience under the supervision of a contracting master where electrical construction work is done with similar licensing and inspection rules to the state of North Dakota.
 - Master - Minimum of 10,000 hours. If self-employed, need minimum hours of prior work experience.
 - Journeyman - Minimum of 8,000 hours.
- If your apprenticeship did not include related training and the majority of practical experience was obtained in North Dakota with a North Dakota based contractor, you are not eligible for a reciprocal license or examination for licensure.
- If applying for reciprocity from a state that does not require continuing education, provide proof of completion of 8 hours of continuing education.
